Nassau YRs announce Pizza and Politics Night FREE food with GOP candidates

The Nassau County Young Republicans will be holding their first annual Pizza and Politics Night on Monday, October 29 at 8PM at the Mineola Knights of Columbus Hall (186 Jericho Turnpike, Mineola). As part of the evening's festivities, many of the Republican candidates from throughout the county will be stopping by for a chance to meet and greet.

"Pizza and Politics night will be a great opportunity for young people from all over Nassau County to get to know the local candidates and their stances on the issues that are most important to us," said Andrew Stream, the new president of the YRs. "We are asking all Young Republicans to come out, enjoy some free pizza and socialize in what is promised to be a fun-filled night. I'm looking forward to it."

The Young Republicans is a social organization open to all Republicans ages 14 to 40. If you are over the age of 18, you must be enrolled as a Republican. Meetings are generally held on the fourth Thursday of each month. Membership dues are $5 a year for high school students and $10 for all others.

"I encourage everyone to become more politically active in the Republican Party as the 2007 election quickly approaches and we plan for 2008," concluded Stream
